

We make American crafted Leatherman multi-tools. And you make life happen. You, the maker, the capable doer, the answer to your friend's "if only I had a...". The Leatherman you hold has a scratch from that time you repaired your neighbor's fence; it has a smudge of grease from the vintage car you're fixing up.

Doesn't matter. It's yours. Each one of our 600 engineers, machinists, material handlers, and manufacturers crafted that tool right here in Portland, Oregon so it would stand up to whatever was thrown at it, and keep coming back for more. Just like you.

You know every feature on your Leatherman like the back of your hand and each one has been used to save the day more times that you can remember. And that, my friend, earns you the Badge of Wondrous Capabilities. Well done. Well done, indeed.

Go to Work Safely, Quickly

The Leatherman Raptor shears feature the necessary tools for uniformed medical professionals to safely and quickly go to work in an emergency situation. Developed with the input of special operations medics, EMTs and fire professionals, the Raptor was crafted with just the right balance of multipurpose features for medical-specific ops without an overkill of tools to complicate sometimes life-threatening situations. When it's a question of survival, the Raptor answers loud and clear.

It's another amazing morning out on the river, and you just hooked into a big one! Unfortunately, it's your buddy Larry, and he doesn't look too happy about it. But you know that in the blink of an eye, you'll have the needlenose pliers on your Leatherman multi-tool open and ready for action. They've helped more than one angler save face—literally.

Sure, you didn't expect those dirty looks from Larry, but at least you were ready to take care of that hook. And being ready for the expected (and unexpected) is what sets you apart from the rest. You're prepared for anything the river might have in store for you today, and your foresight is worthy of the highest recognition.

There was a little rain, but nothing you couldn't handle. Since before dawn you'd been out there overlooking the pond – just you, your loyal retriever, the decoys, and your thoughts. But unlike your retriever, the decoys weren't pulling their weight and you were ready to pack it in.

Just when you were about to head back to the truck for a warm Thermos full of joe, a flock hooked and came in close. You were ready; you'd set your gear up well with that Leatherman clipped to your belt for just such an occasion. A few minutes later, you were on your way to that warm brew – but this time, with a successful day in the bag. Your retriever deserves a scratch, and you deserve a pat on the back for your preparedness. Nicely done, savvy outdoorsman. Nicely done.
